

YOUR EYES AND THEIR CARE

EYESTRAIN

Next to life itself Sight is the most valuable thing you possess.

To do the most efficient work, to get the most enjoyment out of life, you need your eyes in the best possible condition.

The first indications of eye trouble should have your immediate attention. Such troubles often come on so gradually that they are not realized at first, but as soon as recognized they should be attended to, as eye defects continue to grow worse if neglected.

The most common troubles are the results of eyestrain, which is exceedingly prevalent. Unless the strain is promptly relieved permanent injury to the eyes is likely to result, and merely because of neglect for a time a person may suffer a life-long handicap of poor sight.

Fifth Will Held on the Border.
Major General Funston has ordered the return of 25,000 national guardsmen now on the Mexican border, to return home and be mustered out of federal service. Field hospital No. 1 and Company A, signal corps, both of the Fifth Nebraska regiment, are among those ordered home, but the regiment as a whole will remain on the border for some time to come. The North Platte boys probably very much regret that they were not included in those ordered home.

SAVE YOUR DIMES AND GET A KODAK

The Rincker Book & Drug Co. has adopted a plan whereby anyone can easily secure a kodak merely through saving dimes. You deposit a dime for a dime bank in which Mr. Rincker places a slug that represents the dime you invested in the bank. Then when you have a spare dime call at the store and deposit in the bank. In a short time you will have the bank full and for the contents you can get a kodak. If you want a higher priced kodak fill the bank twice, thrice or four times, or as many times as you wish. It's an easy way to purchase a kodak and you don't miss the money. The Rincker Co. carries kodaks ranging in price from 75 cents to $50.

Myrtle Found Guilty.
In the county court Friday Myrtle McClellan, who the night before took French leave, was found guilty of maintaining an immoral house. Wether Myrtle will appear at any future time to defend herself is not known, but it is probable that she is satisfied that her residence in North Platte has not been a success, financially or otherwise.

Winter Weather
Climatic conditions in western Nebraska are so changing that folks can no longer be considered the banana belt. Saturday night between four and five inches of snow fell; Sunday was a cold blustery day, and yesterday morning the temperature registered twenty-one degrees below zero—the coldest morning of the winter.

Many Colonels Appointed.
Governor Neville last Saturday appointed 108 colonels on his staff. North Platte gets six, namely, J. G. Beale, J. B. McDonald, F. W. Heringham, C. E. Edwards, Leonard Robinson and W. W. Hunter. Arrayed in their respective uniforms we shall all be proud of them.

Rebekahs Exteriors Grand Officers
Last Friday was certainly a red letter day for the local lodge of Rebekahs on which occasion they had for their guests the assembly president, junior past president, secretary and warden for their entertainment. The Rebekah degree was conferred on Dean and Mrs. J. J. Bowker and Fred L. Spurrin.

The new staff under the able direction of Captain J. Guy Swope and Mrs. Tiley did their parts in a flawless manner and performed the numerous evolutions without an error. Indeed, the work was so perfect that Dean Bowker was heard to remark "of all the degrees I have taken in my lifetime this was the most perfect and beautiful."

The hall was filled to overflowing and everyone present enjoyed the occasion to the limit. Refreshments were served at the close of the session.

Buy a dime bank at Rincker's, put in your spare dimes and before you know it you'll have enough dimes to buy a kodak.

Funeral of Chas. A. Dill.
The remains of Chas. A. Dill arrived from Chicago Friday night accompanied by Mrs. Dill and the two children and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Park. The funeral was held from the Lutheran church Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Harman conducting the service. Although the weather was cold and stormy, the church was filled with friends, many members of the B. of L. E. and B. P. O. E., of which he was a member, attending.

Charles A. Dill was born in Springfield, Ill., Jan. 23, 1858, and died in Chicago, Jan. 17th 1917, at the age of fifty-nine years and fifteen days. At the age of sixteen he accepted employment with the Chicago & Alton railroad. He came to North Platte in 1879, and was employed as fireman and later as engineer. In this latter vocation he continued until January, 1910, when he suffered a stroke of apoplexy. A few years ago he moved to Chicago, where he was a station agent for the Illinois Central. Last October he suffered a second stroke but was improving when he was again afflicted January 14th and from which death resulted January 17th.

He was married in 1896 to Miss Mary Yost of this city, to which union were born two children, Gertrude and Charles. Surviving are the wife and two children, his mother, Mrs. Julia Dill and sister Mrs. W. L. Park.

He was received into the Lutheran church in this city by baptism in April 1901, and dismissed to the Lutheran church in Chicago last spring. He was a member of the general council for six years.

During his residence here of over thirty years Mr. Dill won and kept the friendship of every acquaintance, and was always an enjoyable companion among his fellow workmen and with his friends.

BIG TENT SHOW COMING.

Berk's Big "Uncle Tom's Cabin Co." Will Exhibit at North Platte Monday Night Sept. 18th.

This is the first time that the public have had an opportunity of seeing the "New Version" of Uncle Tom's Cabin, the greatest dramatization of this popular play ever written. Mrs. Stowe's historical play has ever been a favorite with the women and children, and they always go to see it whenever an opportunity presents itself. Berk's Big "Uncle Tom's Cabin Co." has the distinction of being the largest organization of its kind on the road, they carry a special train of their own cars to transport their people, horses, donkeys, dogs, chickens and paraphernalia necessary to present the only Grand Spectacular Production of this, the most successful drama ever written. The characters of Uncle Tom, Lisa, Little Eva and Marks are all ably presented by a competent cast, and the large contingent of singers and dancers, blood hounds, etc. give a realistic and sensational naturalism to the performance. The scenic and mechanical effects are good, and the picturesque transformation scene forms a fitting finish to the whole.
